

For Immediate Release
Contact: Susannah Maddox
(530) 621-7820
smaddox@snowlinehospice.org

CAMERON PARK NEWCOMERS CLUB TO HOST FASHION SHOW BENEFITING SNOWLINE HOSPICE

(Placerville, CA) – Fall fashions will be on display at the October 10th fashion show hosted by the Cameron Park Newcomers Club. The fashion show is Wednesday, October 10, beginning at 11:30 am at the Sequoia Restaurant (543 Bee Street) in Placerville. The $30 ticket includes the fashion show, entertainment, lunch, and dessert bar. All proceeds raised benefit Snowline Hospice, a provider of end of life care. Tickets are for sale at the Cameron Park Thrift Store (3300 Coach Lane).

The fashion finds that will be modeled are all items donated to the Snowline Hospice Cameron Park Thrift Store. Outfits for morning relaxation, a day at the office, and a night on the town will be featured at the show. All clothing, accessories, and gift items will be available for sale in the boutique before and after the show.

“We are thrilled that the Cameron Park Newcomers Club is putting on the show for Snowline Hospice,” said Jeff Henderson, Executive Director, “It is always a great privilege when a community group partners with Snowline Hospice to raise money for end of life care.”

The Cameron Park Newcomers Club is a social club that provides a place for newcomers to the area to meet others and get involved. The club was established in 1979 and seeks to help charitable organizations with various projects.

“The Newcomers Club is excited to help such a worthy cause with such a fun event,” said Dodie Erickson, Newcomer member, “We are doing our best to make sure that it is an afternoon to remember!”

All funds raised by the fashion show will benefit Snowline Hospice and patient care. For more information please contact the Snowline Hospice Cameron Park Thrift Store at (530) 676-8708.

Snowline Hospice is a community-based nonprofit organization located in El Dorado County, California. The mission of Snowline Hospice is to meet the unique physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of people as they approach the end of life. Hospice care enhances the living, comforts the dying, and supports the grieving with compassion and dignity. Snowline Hospice serves the Western Slope of El Dorado County and Folsom.